The National Debt.

Long after the questions of reconstruction and freedmen's bureaus have been consigned to oblivion, the national debt, with its responsibilities and burdens, will be the difficulty of politicians. President Johnson's letter to General Ewing on this subject contrasts the extravagance of the last four years with the economical administration of the seventy-two years preceding the rebellion in such a way as to put it beyond doubt that a change must take place if the country is to be saved from bankruptcy.—It seems almost incredible that the expenditure incurred within the short period since the rebellion should represent a sum almost equal to that of the seventy two years preceding it. Surely no denunciations can be more eloquent than the naked figures that thus demonstrate the mal-administration of the Radicals. The purchase money of Russian America is no doubt a considerable item in our recent expenditure; but in the period previous to the rebellion there are still heavier expenses of an extraordinary character to be taken into consideration.

Louisiana, Florida and California were purchased from France, Spain and Mexico at a still heavier expense, and during that period a three years' war with Great Britain, another with Mexico of shorter duration, and numberless Indian wars helped to swell the national expenditure. We can find no set-off in the period since the war comparable with these. Extravagances and corruption have been a heavier drain upon the country than the purchase of Russian America or the scanty pensions doled out to the widows and orphans of our soldiers. If the radicals saved the Union they have materially checked the prosperity of the country. "Your money or your life," was the unpleasant alternative put to the republic, which, between the Confederates and the radicals, seems to have fallen into very bad company.

Mexico, Canada and Cuba are still wanting to swell the greatness of our resources and make all North America ours; but so long as such burdens of taxation are imposed on the people we cannot expect that they will drop willingly into our arms. In the midst of peace our expenditure is upon a war footing. What would it be if some unforeseen circumstance involved us in a European war? Either bankruptcy or defeat, unless retrenchment be carried out with the most unsparing severity and a disinterested patriotism that looks more to the common good than the interests of party.

Our financial mismanagement has indeed brought the country to a crisis scarcely less dangerous than when the first shot fired at Fort Sumter inaugurated the civil war.—Then the vacillating policy of the Democratic leaders compelled the people to support a radical government, and were the exclusion of the Democrats from office the only result we should say, "Served them right." But with Radical power came Radical plunder; and the amount of treasure thus robbed from the people has burdened us with a national debt which cannot be repudiated without disgrace, and which, if we hope ever to liquidate, we must at once set about putting the government expenses on a peace basis and detecting and punishing corruption wherever it may be found.—N. Y. Herald.

THE STEALING OF SECURITIES.

The frequent and daring robberies of securities and other valuables, by thieves who are permitted to hover around the most active haunts of business in New York, and suddenly snatch their prey from the hands of their victims, or from some temporary place of deposit, have called forth considerable discussion, as well as suggestions for relief, in the press of that city.—The police of New York are accused of being much more severe and expert in using their cudgels upon poor inebriates or fallen women,—whom, with a virtuous indignation that scorns to take cognizance of any legal rights in such beings, they pound almost out of the semblance of humanity—than they are in protecting the public from the depredations of notorious felons, whom they permit to intrude themselves, unwatched, in the heart of business places, and who often escape with their booty with very little difficulty. It is even stated that when these rascals have run off with a pile of valuables, they are negotiated with by the members of the preventive and detective departments, and treated with as distinguished consideration as if they were brother artists of the same profession. Various suggestions for the protection of valuables are made, one of which is recommended by a correspondent of the New York Journal of Commerce, as practiced by himself, viz: the enclosure in a bag and locking in a safe when not in use, and the custody of a clerk to hold the bag in his hand when taken out of the safe for any purpose. It is apprehended, however, the difficulty is not to be remedied by a change of system, and that unless the careless handling which has resulted from the immense daily transactions in securities can be rectified, the losses will continue under any form of manipulation. The safe deposit companies are of the utmost value in affording security from burglars and from fire, but when bonds, moneys, etc., are in transitu among dealers, only circumspect precautions and careful observation by the police, and honest, prompt efforts to catch rogues, can effect any safety.—Balt. Sun.

Persons unaccustomed to drinking tea are aware of the peculiar sleeplessness which follows an indulgence in the beverage. This effect is due to an alkaloid which exists in tea, known by the name of "theine." A medical student in Boston recently tried some experiments with this substance, the result of which he describes as follows:

"I took myself theinæ gr. xii., at about 2 P. M., by the mouth, and about two hours after there came on a state of great physical restlessness, and at the same time a very uneasy state of mind, which Lehmann describes in this connection, as a "mental anguish." Soon after, there was a tremulousness, most marked in my hands and arms. On attempting to write and control the muscles of the hand, the hand trembled so violently that it was impossible to write with any regularity, nor could it be restrained for more than a few seconds. My mind was also in an excessively uncomfortable and anxious state, which admitted not the slightest rest, whether I sat or lay or attempted reading. This lasted, perhaps, two hours, when there were no other phenomena, except sleeplessness, until 2 A. M., having gone to bed at 10. Meanwhile, the mind was in a state of most active and persistent thinking, in spite of all attempts at forgetfulness."

The same substance, injected under the skin of toads, produced death in a very short time, and the experimenter came to the conclusion that theine is to all intents and purposes a poison. Still, tea-drinkers will probably say, as the tobacco chewer did, when told that tobacco was a poison, "If it be a poison, it is a very slow one."

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1868.

THE RESULT OF THE ELECTION.

Contrary to our expectations, the telegrams which came to hand after midnight, on the night of the election, rendered the result in the entire country certain. Grant and Colfax are certainly elected President and Vice President of the United States, for the next four years. Our hopes, based upon the calculations and speculations of the Northern Democratic press, since the October elections, have been driven to the winds. The Radical majorities, as claimed for Gen. Grant, are overwhelming, and settle, definitely, the fact, that the American people, by a very large majority, approve and endorse the Congressional reconstruction policy in the Southern States. Nor can we doubt, after this result, that this must become the policy of the Union. Universal manhood suffrage, the equality of all races, and the concentration of power in the central government or in the Congress, seems to have been sanctioned by this vote of the people.

However ungrateful this may be to the feelings of the Southern people, it is palpable that the sooner they adjust themselves to the necessities of the case and the inexorable logic of events, the better. It is impossible for the convictions of the Southern people, as to what is right and best, to be changed, but by such facts as prove the new order of things to be best and safest for the country. Their opinions have been based upon long settled convictions, and an actual experiment of the practical operation of the new regime, which has only served to confirm their previous judgment.

Our Radical opponents have indulged in high-flown promises and anticipations of the future under Radical rule. They have urged that a better day for labor and enterprise will soon bless the South—that capital and population and energy will flow in upon us, and that in a few years our people will forget the past, because of their happier condition. We cannot bring our minds to hope for any such results. The grounds of these professions are imaginary and such hopes will not be realized from these sources.

Nevertheless, it behooves every man, woman and child, in the State, to make the very best of a bad case, possible. Many, under the gloomy apprehensions they indulge, will leave the State and go elsewhere, while the great bulk of our population, unable to leave, must remain and battle with their difficulties as best they may. We believe that nothing will be gained by leaving, unless one has ample resources.

Peace and quiet, industry and economy, are the only assurances that the Southern people have of good in the future. It is simple folly and fool-hardiness, either to give way to melancholy and despondency, under such circumstances, or to growl and fret over an allotment which we cannot avoid. A bad government, badly administered, is better than no government at all; hence, we should demean ourselves as good citizens, so as not to infringe the laws in existence or give room to those in authority to complain of our fidelity to the State and the country. Our lot may be an undesirable one—indeed, a hard one—but let us determine to make the best of it, and not set down like children to "grieve over spilled milk."

At least two years will elapse before the people of North Carolina, except in the towns and cities, will be disturbed or interested in another election. They are, therefore, in a position to give a truce to politics and partizan feeling, and now to turn their attention, with greater zeal and energy, to their material wants. Work, work, is what we need to bring us out of our pecuniary difficulties, and, at the same time, a purpose to use all legitimate means to correct abuses in the Government, as they may be affected by our franchises. Our principles are unchangeable, but circumstances must control our future action. Let us continue to cherish our love and veneration for constitutional liberty and the rights of men, and to promote their permanency, until the sun of liberty goes down never to rise again. Let us not become craven-hearted or lose our self-respect and our virtue, or our hatred and contempt for the mean and the reprobate, even for much gain. Let us be men and follow the right, if, like Lazarus, we have to feed on the crumbs which fall to us!

THE ENTIRE Democratic Congressional delegation in the City of New York is elected,—six in number. We have no details, as yet, sufficient to authorize us to make an estimate of the relative Congressional gains and losses in the various States in which elections have just been held. A day or two will disclose. The gains of Democratic Congressmen, North and South, have probably been considerable.

HEAVY WARRANT.—A warrant passed the Treasury Department on Monday for $23,735,382.50, payable in coin, to meet the coupon interest due on the 1st instant on the five-twenty bonds. The warrant was issued with directions to distribute the money at the various points where the payment of the coupons is demanded.

IMMIGRATION—GOOD SUGGESTIONS.

We copy the following from the last Goldsboro' Messenger, and desire to call the special attention of our readers to the suggestions of the Messenger, and the proposition of Hon. W. T. Dortch, of Wayne. We entirely endorse the movement, and hope our enterprising planters will second it and attend the proposed meeting. We had intended enlarging upon the subject, but must reserve our remarks to another day. The Messenger says:

"We are in receipt of a communication from our distinguished townsman, the Hon. Wm. T. Dortch, requesting us to give notice that a meeting will be held in this town on Friday, the 13th inst., for the purpose of taking into consideration the important subject of immigration. As the letter contains statements which we know will prove highly interesting to most of our readers, we take the liberty of inserting it here, although it was not intended for publication, and we feel confident that our contemporaries throughout the State will be only too glad to notice, in a commendatory style, a matter bearing so directly and conspicuously upon the best interests of North Carolina.

We look upon this matter as one in which the future prosperity of North Carolina and her sisters of the South is largely involved; and believe that the attention of our people cannot be too urgently or too frequently directed to it. And we beg leave to state that the columns of the Messenger will ever be found a ready and willing vehicle of any suggestions, touching this question, which may tend to awaken the minds of the people to its importance, or direct them as to the best method of conducting the enterprise.

We trust that the meeting proposed will be a large one, composed of representative men of the wealth and enterprise of all sections of the State, and that its action may inspire that energy and enthusiasm so much needed on this subject.

GOLDSBORO', Nov. 2d, 1868.

Messrs. Editors:—Please give notice that a meeting will be held in the Court House, in Goldsboro', on Friday, the 13th inst., to take into consideration the subject of immigration. Mr. Edward Trueb has recently imported forty or fifty Swiss for the Messrs. Atkinson, and designs leaving for Switzerland in about two weeks for others. Mr. Atkinson has consented to go with him and bring over as many immigrant-laborers, mechanics, house-servants, gardeners, &c., as may be desired. Persons from all sections of the State are requested to attend the meeting, that they may make the necessary arrangements with Mr. Atkinson, who is a gentleman of property and high character, and will be pleased to bring over several thousand immigrants. Also please ask the papers of the State, friendly to the movement, to notice the meeting.

W. T. DORTCH.

THE RADICAL GOVERNOR OF ALABAMA ON THE STAND.

We are glad to find, says the National Intelligencer, one Radical Governor in the South not willing to lend himself to the base work of slandering the people over whom he rules. Gov. Smith, of Alabama, is the man. The Radicals have insisted that this State was in a disorganized and rebellious condition, with no security for the lives and property of Union men. To these allegations Gov. Smith gives the following denial:

From the Montgomery (Ala.) Mail, October 25

GOVERNOR SMITH, OF ALABAMA, ON REPORTS OF VIOLENCE—AN ANSWER TO A RADICAL FALSEHOOD BY A RADICAL GOVERNOR.

Governor William H. Smith, Radical Governor of Alabama, spoke at Lafayette, Chambers county, on the 14th instant. In his speech he puts the following clinching denial upon the greater part of the Radical capital in trade:

"Exaggerated reports may have gone North about outrages here, and the damage to Union men. I have always been a Union man. I never professed anything else, and never, except from 1862 to 1865, have I been afraid to go any where I wanted to in this community. With that exception, I have always felt safe here.

I have looked on the people of Alabama as a people who were disposed to abide by the laws, except when engaged in hostilities to the Government of the United States; and I have so represented them on all occasions. Of course there have been many violations of the law, by desperate characters, and I have blamed the people in some localities for not punishing offenders. Not long ago the Legislature passed a resolution calling upon the President of the United States for troops to assist the civil authorities. This was done on account of some troubles chiefly in the valley of the Tennessee river. I did not feel called upon to veto that resolution; but I did deem it my duty to do what they requested me, and that was to go to Washington city with the committee, and I went. I went to represent truthfully the condition of affairs in Alabama. I saw the President, and told him, as I told all the newspaper reporters, and everybody else who spoke with me on the question, that a large portion of the people, I would say more than nine-tenths, were disposed to be peaceable, quiet, law-abiding citizens; and that so far as I was concerned, I did not believe it was necessary, in very much the larger portion of the State, to have any military force for the preservation of law and order. I want to say, that, so far as I am concerned, I have never misrepresented the people of this country; and I never will, if I know it. Whether people thank me for it is no matter. It was an honest duty that I did in making these representations."

"The speech of Secretary Seward at Auburn yesterday does not surprise any well-informed politician at Washington. That he would enter his voice for Grant and Colfax before election day was really predicted shortly after the nomination of Mr. Seymour; and there are quite a number of intelligent observers of political workings about the capitol who will not believe that the State Department will be shortly deprived of the presence of Mr. Seward—unless Seymour should be elected on Tuesday.

It is becoming a common subject of remark here that Gen. Grant, if elected, will not yield his natural conservatism to the demands of extreme Radicals, but that he will be in all respects a national President. How far this is a correct prediction remains to be seen; but it is really undeniable that the impression will get many votes for him that otherwise would either go for Seymour or not be cast at all. Others declare that the Radicals will be thoroughly and completely satisfied with their choice. As Gen. Grant has given no assurances of any kind beyond his past record, both parties may hold to their impressions without contradiction."

From the Washington Evening Express.

UNITED STATES VS. GEORGE H MOORE—CHARGE OF EMBEZZLEMENT, &c.—FINDING OF THE COURT.

In this case the defendant is charged with neglect of his official duty as deputy collector of internal revenue for the third district of North Carolina, and with embezzling $10,000 on or about the 10th day of July, 1865, belonging to the United States.

Several days have been occupied in the examination of witnesses, and a large number of documents, certificates of deposit, receipts, and other vouchers, and able counsel for the United States and for the defendant have argued the case.

From the testimony of the collector and one of his deputies and two other witnesses from North Carolina, and from the documents produced by the prosecution, it appears the defendant is charged with having collected during the time specified that he was acting as deputy collector, the sum of $288,056 98, and from the certificates of receipts and other vouchers exhibited by the defendant, it appears that he has paid to the collector, and by his deposits in the Treasury, the sum of $297,781 98, leaving an apparent balance in his favor of $9,694 40.

It would appear from this account that the charge of embezzlement is not sustained.

In regard to the charge of "willful neglect of duty," sundry laws, decisions and authorities have been produced, from which it appears that officers of the United States are responsible and punishable for neglect of duty; but in this case it appears from the evidence that the defendant was not an officer of the United States, but a deputy of the collector, appointed by him, and gave bonds to him, and the revenue laws expressly hold the Collector responsible for the acts of his deputies, so that if an offence has been committed in this case it is a private offence against the Collector for a breach of trust, for which he must seek redress by a suit in the State Courts of North Carolina.

Under these circumstances, and in the absence of proof that he has been guilty of wilful neglect of duty, it appears that there is not probable cause to believe that the laws have been violated; and that the defendant cannot be held to bail upon the proofs which have been exhibited. The defendant is therefore honorably discharged.

A SUSPICIOUS CHARACTER—LOOK OUT FOR HIM.—A long-haired individual, a vender of a "pain paint," has been in this city for about two weeks. Where he came from is unknown to us, nor do we care, but we do know that he will bear watching. Dr. J. K. Fleming found him prowling around his house, on Pollok street, on Saturday night, in a suspicious manner, and on watching him, saw him enter the yard of Wm. H Pearce, Esq., nearly opposite, go to a window, open the shutter, and peer into the room for about fifteen minutes. Not knowing what his object was, but suspecting him of burglarious intentions, the Doctor left his residence and crossed the street. As soon as the "pain paint" man heard Dr. Fleming close his door, he sprang out of Mr. Pearce's yard and walked briskly up Pollok. The Doctor being determined to overhaul the individual, called upon him to halt. This only had the effect of increasing his speed, and, in all probability, he would have made off undiscovered, or rather, unknown, had not the sharp "click" of a revolver admonished him that there might be some danger in continuing his pace. He came to a halt instantly. Having asked him a few questions, and spotted his man, Dr. Fleming allowed him to go on. It is reported, with what degree of truth we do not know, that this same person was made to leave the city of Wilmington, a short time ago, for the perpetration of an infamous deed.

We have performed our duty by thus publicly calling the attention of our citizens to this man. He it theirs to keep a sharp look-out for him.—Newbern Journal of Commerce.

GUARANTEEING A "REPUBLICAN FORM OF GOVERNMENT."

The article which we copy below supplies a striking exemplification of the Radical policy of "peace." Out of some six hundred voters in a township, fifteen are allowed the privilege of the ballot! This is the disgraceful system which is to be perpetuated and extended by bayonets. It is by such base resorts that a Republican triumph has been achieved in West Virginia, where, if a full vote were allowed, that party would be buried beneath 20,000 majority:

"A FARCE.—Happening in Charlestown on Thursday last, we had an opportunity of witnessing a West Virginia election (?)—This township or district formerly polled between five and six hundred votes. The registration books this year, as furnished to the supervisor, contained the names of fifteen voters, all told. These were, of course, deemed loyal. The polls were opened, the election progressed, and at sunset eleven patriots had exercised the privilege of the ballot. The Rads made a mistake, however, in calculating upon so large a proportion of loyalty in that district, for only two of the eleven voted the Radical ticket.

It was the most farcical of all the election farces ever enacted in West Virginia—that 'bastard offspring of a political rape.'"—Winchester Times.

A PERFECT SUCCESS.—The Radicals say that reconstruction is a success. Here is one instance. The present police board are Radicals. In carrying out the reconstruction scheme they have appointed two negroes to one white man on the force. But the time comes when the city is in an uproar, and the services of policemen are needed. Then these Radicals—these representatives of the party whose doctrine is that a loyal negro is in every way the superior of an honorable white man who had the bravery to fight for his principles—these disciples of the creed that the loyal blacks ought to be above the Southern whites, and are able to take that position—these men at once discharged every colored man from the force, and put in their places the very men whom they have declared unfit to govern themselves! when everything at once quiets down. And reconstruction is a success.—N. O. Crescent.

SOUTHERN PEANUT TRADE.—The new peanut crop is beginning to come into market. Quite a large breadth of land in this section was planted in them this year, and the season is said to have been very favorable to their growth, and the yield satisfactory. Prices are good, and the cultivation of this crop is attended with profit. The consumption here is large, and there is already demand for all excess in Northern markets. We hear of several persons who contemplate engaging in the raising of peanuts next year on a scale more extensive than ever before known in these parts.—Norfolk Day Book.

TREATY WITH THE INDIANS.—The President has proclaimed a treaty with the Sacs and Foxes of the Mississippi, by which they cede to the United States all their lands, in return for which ample compensation is made and a tract of land set aside in the Indian country south of Kansas for their future home.—Wash. Express.

NORTH CAROLINA

THE VOTE IN THE APRIL ELECTION.

We publish below, for the sake of reference, the official tabular statement of the vote in the April election in this State.—The 29,774, who did not vote, were men who were registered, and entitled to vote, at the time of the election. In addition to this, it may be safely estimated that 15,000 men in the State are now enfranchised, who could not vote before.

MORE THAN THEY BARGAINED FOR.—The Wilmington Star tells the following in regards to a couple who discussed Planchette for their destiny:

"An engaged couple are said to have amused themselves in asking the following questions and receiving the annexed replies from Planchette: The manipulator being a young lady, her first inquiry, as a matter of course, was, 'shall I ever get married?' 'Yes,' promptly came from Planchette.—'When?' 'Two years.' 'To whom?' '8——B————.' This was entirely satisfactory, as it included both the parties present.—'Shall we be happy?' 'Perfectly.' Now followed a question to which the young lady desired a faithful solution, as it appeared to her the consummation of earthly bliss. 'Shall we have children?' 'Yes.' 'How many?' Planchette was deliberate, evincing no haste, desirous of making no mistake in the figures, but wrote with considerable distinctness, 's-e-v-e-n,' when the young lady shoved the instrument from her with such force that it fell upon the floor, and it was divided in halves by the fall.—Whether Planchette intended 'seventeen' or 'seventy,' was not determined, and we presume time alone can discover the entire answer."

Moral—Beware of Planchette; she knoweth muchly.

A LIZARD FOUND IN A WOMAN'S STOMACH.

On Monday last, we were shown a phial containing a living lizard, which, it is supposed, had been in a woman's stomach for nearly two years. Dr. Middleton, of Elora, had been attending a married woman for about eighteen months. She was troubled with a gnawing sensation in the stomach, and sometimes a jumping or palpitation there; her appetite was irregular, at times totally gone. Tonics and other medicines were given, but they afforded no relief.—On Sunday last, a live lizard passed away. It is needless to say that the woman got immediate relief, and is now rapidly improving in health. The lizard is about four inches long, and exactly like those seen in Canadian swamps, beautifully spotted with black on an orange ground, and was active and lively.

A Most Wonderful and Successful Invention!

NEW METHOD OF WASHING CLOTHES WITHOUT LABOR.

THE AUTOMATIC

CLOTHES WASHER AND BOILER.

Awarded the highest Testimonial wherever exhibited in the United States.

THIS BOILER OPERATES UPON PURELY philosophical principles.

It is self-acting, and dispenses entirely with labor and the wear of clothes.

The hot suds and steam, by the action of fire, are driven up through tubes, poured upon the Clothes, and forced through the fabric with astonishing rapidity, cleansing it perfectly without any rubbing. It has been thoroughly tested and pronounced unequaled as a Clothes Washer by those who have used it.

All fabrics, from the finest laces to the bed-blanket, can be washed perfectly and with ease without the aid of the rubbing-board. For Flannels it is invaluable as the rubbing, rolling, and pressing process, must necessarily full them, more or less.

It is truly a labor and clothes saving invention. Washing will no longer be a hardship, and washing day no longer a terror and a dread to housewives.

The invention can be used in any boiler, and the low price of the article places it within the reach of every family.

The saving in the wear of clothes will very soon pay for the outlay.

It is estimated that 200 to 300 gallons of boiled suds pass through the clothes in thirty minutes; this being the longest time required for cleansing a boiler full of clothes.

Having purchased the exclusive interest and control of the Automatic Clothes Washer and Boiler, for North Carolina, we have established a depot in Raleigh, where we are prepared to fill orders or to sell COUNTY RIGHTS. Letters addressed to us at Raleigh, N. C., or Portsmouth, Va., will receive prompt attention.

THE

UNIVERSAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

NEW YORK.

Office, No. 60, Liberty Street.

The business of this Company is EXCLUSIVELY confined to the insurance of first-class healthy lives.

THE DISTINCTIVE FEATURE of the Stock system of Life Insurance, as opposed to the MUTUAL, is a low rate of premium for a stated sum assured, which is IMMEDIATE, SECURED, and CERTAIN; in lieu of a high rate of premium for a promised dividend which is DISTANT, CONTINGENT, and UNCERTAIN; this so-called dividend being merely a return of a portion of the excessive and unnecessary premium charged in the first instance.

ILLUSTRATION.

Suppose that an individual aged thirty desires to devote $200 a year for the purpose of effecting an insurance on his life; this amount will immediately secure him in the "Universal" the sum of $11,751, payable on his decease. This sum, paid to a Company charging the ordinary mutual rates, would secure him the sum of $8,474.

The difference between these sums ($3,277) is exactly the same as an immediate bonus or addition to the policy to be paid by the former office to the holder of the policy in case of the early death of the insured. It is true that if the insured, in an office charging high rates, live long enough, and have his periodical dividends added to his policy, the sum may equal or surpass that above named; but it must not be forgotten that the chance of early death is the very thing the applicant desires to insure against, and consequently the greater the sum immediately secured contingent on this event, the greater the advantage to the policy-holder.

To illustrate the importance to the policy-holder of low premiums in more general terms, it may be stated that by a reduction of twenty-five per cent in the rate of premium, the same amount of money will secure a policy thirty-three and one-third per cent greater and likewise that a reduction of twenty-five per cent. in the rate of premium is precisely equivalent to an annual cash dividend of thirty three and one-third per cent., payable in advance, or to a dividend of forty-five per cent. payable at the end of five years.

By the Stock plan the full cash effect of the premium is immediately secured to the insured, the Company taxing all the risk. By the Mutual plan, the full value in insurance of the premium paid is not secured to the policy-holder, who takes a portion of the risk himself.

THE VOTE IN RALEIGH.

The white men of Raleigh did their duty nobly on Tuesday. The white registration of the city was some 900, and the white vote 642. But it must be borne in mind that a large number,—probably 200—of those who registered here, for convenience, obtained certificates and voted in the county. We undertake to assert that, not more than thirty or forty white natives in Raleigh voted the Radical ticket. The true white men of Raleigh are nearly a unit, and they worked, on Tuesday, with a zeal, an energy and a patriotism worthy of all admiration.

THE VOTE IN WAKE.

We append, below, the vote of Wake county, so far as heard from. Old Wake has acquitted herself splendidly, and, in relative gains, is, thus far, the banner county of the State. The Radical majority in the county in April was 959.

	Rogers.	Dewese.
Raleigh	642	1546
Banks'	158	77
Spikes'	61	99
Auburn	195	99
Forestville	134	151
Rolesville	166	212

Laws'	129	68
B. Jones'	185	15
Morrisville	167	81
Rosemond's	132	85
Sorrell's	95	109
Oak Grove	249	172

Green Level	56	73
Tabby Jones'	61	72
Holly Springs	90	120
Wakefield	100	78
	2,997	3,392

This shows a gain, over the last election, of 564 votes! What county has done better? Hurrah for old Wake.

The vote for President does not vary materially from the above.

WE NEED make no apology for the scarcity of original matter in this issue. Our readers, we are sure, don't feel like reading it, and, in the midst of the National gloom and of our National defeat, we, certainly, don't feel in the humor of writing any.

OUR TELEGRAPH OFFICE.—Too much praise cannot be awarded Mr. B. W. Starke, the efficient Telegraphic operator in this city, for the completeness of his office arrangements for receiving the news over the wires on Tuesday night. With his skilful assistants, he received and transmitted intelligence with great facility and accuracy—the whole corps working through the entire night. Mr. Starke is the right man in the right place.

BANK OF NORTH CAROLINA.—We publish, in another column, an advertisement, being an official statement from Geo. W. Mordecai, Esq., late President of the Bank of North Carolina, of the affairs of that institution, with the reasons impelling it to go into bankruptcy.

THE LEGISLATURE of this State re-assembles, according to adjournment, in this City, on Monday, the 16th inst.

THE STATE COUNCIL of the Friends of Temperance assembles in this city, on Wednesday, the 9th. of December next.

PRESBYTERIAN SYNOD.—The Synod of North Carolina will meet in the First Presbyterian Church, in Wilmington, on the 18th. of the present month.

RT. REV. JAMES GIBBONS, Bishop of Wilmington, of the Roman Catholic Church, was installed in office by Archbishop Spalding, of Baltimore, on Sunday last. The ceremonies were new to the spectators and very imposing.

OLD RICHMOND.—Mrs. E. S. Steele, of Rockingham, Richmond Co., in this State, sends the editors of the Wilmington Journal a cabbage, raised in her garden, which weighed 9½ pounds. She has raised some weighing 10 to 11 pounds. Watauga, in the western part of this State, raises cabbages weighing 25 pounds.

VIRGINIA STATE DEBT.—An estimate made at the State Treasury of Virginia shows her public debt to be $36,633,458.12 up to 1st. of October, 1868. Of this her old debt is $33,953,032.94, and the new $3,686,426.07.

ISSUE OF PATENTS.—On Tuesday, November 10th., two hundred and forty five patents will be issued from the United States Patent Office. Number of caveats filed during the week ending October 31, 1868, fifty-six.

WARREN.

GRANVILLE.

MECKLENBURG.

Official majority for Seymour and Blair 184; for Mr. Shober, for Congress, 149.—On the Presidential vote, a Democratic loss of 36.

SIXTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.

The Radicals concede the election of F. E. Shober, Esq., Democrat, to Congress, over the Hon. Nathaniel Boyden. This is a most gratifying result and we congratulate Mr. Shober and the gallant Democracy of the 6th.

FOURTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.

We have not such returns from Chatham, Granville, Orange and Nash as will enable us to form an estimate of the result in this District. If Col. Rogers is not elected over the carpet bagger, Dewese, he has at least frightened him and his friends out of a year's growth. He has cut down the Radical majority to a small figure, and has endeared himself to the people of the District by his noble efforts.

STATE AT LARGE.

We regret that our returns from the State at large are not more copious. Such additional returns as we may receive will be found under the telegraphic head. From the present favorable showing, we feel great hope, if the West has done its duty, that North Carolina has taken the stand, which her large white majority demands she should take, or else sink in the estimation of good and true men.

Electoral Vote.

So far as heard from, the following is the probable Electoral vote, with the estimated (purely conjectural) majorities in each State. These majorities are probably exaggerated:

States.	Seymour.	Grant.	Majority.
Maine,	7		25,000

A PUBLIC ENEMY.—Chief Justice Cartter, of Washington city, of the District Supreme Court, in confirming the decree of condemnation, recently, against twenty-five barrels of spirits, remarked that the spirit of the statute was to consider spirits a public enemy, which was in rebellion against the government, corrupted the people, and sought to seize the government by seizing its revenues. These twenty five barrels came into court bound to prove their innocence of being connected with an attempt to defraud the revenue. He moved the decree of condemnation upon them, and wished that all the whisky in the world was in these barrels; he would make an auto da fe of them.—Wash. Cor. N. Y. Times.

BANK OF NORTH CAROLINA.

An unanticipated necessity having compelled the "Bank of North Carolina" to go into bankruptcy, it is deemed an act of justice to the Directors, and to the people of the State, that the causes, which have led to this event, should be laid before the public.

So soon after the surrender, as it became certain that the State bonds, issued during the late civil strife, would be repudiated, it was apparent that the Bank, then holding about $700,000 in value of those bonds, would not be able to redeem its notes and discharge its deposits and dividends unpaid.

The larger portion of a heavy individual debt due to it had been standing over, under the force of stay laws, and the continuance of these laws, under the military regime, rendered the prospect of solvency still more hopeless.

Under these circumstances, the individual Stockholders and their Directors, with the concurrence of the State proxies and Directors, concluded that it was the duty of the corporation to proceed to wind up its affairs as speedily as it could, keeping ever in view the demands of its creditors, and the prostrated pecuniary condition of its debtors. Accordingly, it commenced paying its debts with the assets in hand, limiting the rate paid within the amount of its assets certain; and so it continued, increasing, by small degrees, the amount paid out in redemption of its debts, as the assets seemed to increase, until the day of its going into bankruptcy.

A primary and cherished object, which the Bank had in view, was, to enable its debtors to procure, at a small price, its notes, which were received at par. This not only enabled them to pay their debts easily, but tended to decrease the debt of the Bank arising from its circulation. In the course of time, the brokers began to believe, that the Bank could redeem its notes at par; and, in some cases, brought or threatened suit to enforce payment in full. The difficulties were compromised upon the basis, that the note holder should receive a certain per centage on the amount presented, and hold the residue of that amount until it could be ascertained whether the Bank could pay any additional sum. In this way, the Bank continued to proceed, with the greatest economy,—having curtailed the expenses of the institution in every way consistent with the discharge of its business. After due advisement, it was deemed prudent and beneficial to its creditors to convert a large portion of its specie into United States interest bearing bonds, in order to keep its funds as productive as practicable, and also ever ready to be used as cash, when it might be needed. To this end specie was, privately, and as secretly as possible, (to avoid attachments,) sent to New York, and there exchanged for the bonds. The Bank stood pledged in honor to treat all its creditors alike and to allow no one of them, if it could be prevented, advantage over any other. In the meeting of the stockholders in June last, this policy, as the past and settled policy of the Bank, was openly announced, and, by common consent, recommended and approved for continued and future action.—No one dissented.

Thenceforth, the Directors felt themselves doubly bound to pursue this course; and, while they were daily engaged in so doing, the Bank was unexpectedly notified of a suit, by attachment, for about $10,000 worth of its notes, commenced in the city of New York, in the name of Wirth and Avens, brokers of that city, for the use and at the instance of Rufus Y. McAden, Esq., of this State, one of the Stockholders of the Bank, who was present at the meeting in June last.

Efforts were forthwith made to induce Mr. McAden to withdraw the suit,—first, by offering him the terms announced already, and accepted by all others of the Bank note holders, which he declined; and secondly, by offering payment in full, in fair discounted paper of the Bank. This was also declined.

In turn, he proposed to withdraw the suit, upon receiving $5,000 as a bonus, and retaining the notes as an existing debt, to their full nominal amount, undiminished by the bonus paid here. This offer was declined, because, if acceded to, it would have given him a preference of 12½ per cent over all other creditors. He next proposed to take $40,000 in cash with costs of suit, for an alleged judgment on the notes. This was declined. The Directors, both of the State and of the individual Stockholders, unanimously concurred in rejecting these offers.

The Directors, having failed to procure the withdrawal of the suit, so as to allow the Bank to mete out equal justice to all, according to their promises, felt themselves bound to take such action as would restore to the Bank the fund attached, and preserve it for the equal use of its creditors, as administered under the bankrupt law.

They were well aware, that, by this course, the fund would be considerably diminished by increased expense, and that its debtors would be sued in a Court which does not regard the stay law; but, having exhausted every effort to induce Mr. McAden to withdraw his suit and take an equal chance with other creditors, they had no alternative left them to ensure the execution of the promises to creditors, but to go into bankruptcy; and, as honorable men, under a high sense of duty, they have adopted it.

In the midst of their embarrassments, they were unable to see any other course by which they could redeem their faith to those who had forborne to sue, by reason of their promises. And they are confident that a just public will approve and vindicate their course.

GEO. W. MORDECAI,
Late President,
On behalf of Board of Directors.

"Data," the intelligent correspondent of the Baltimore Sun, says:

"A rumor that the President has made known his intention of removing General Reynolds because of his order forbidding the election for President in Texas has gained circulation. The President has not made known any such purpose, though it is quite probable that Reynolds will be relieved of his command, more particularly on account of his last order, interfering with the decision of a civil Court in a case involving a question of heirship to real estate.

No other military commander has ever assumed such authority as Reynolds has taken upon himself in the case of the heirs of Clark, mentioned in these dispatches a few days ago, and his conduct in this instance meets the disapprobation of officials here, irrespective of party."

NATIONAL BANKS.—The national banks' October official returns for the Southern States show the following resources: Of those in North Carolina $2,247,000, including $36,000 specie; South Carolina $2,237,000, specie $26,000; Georgia $5,757,000, specie $37,000; Alabama $1,114,000, specie $37,000; Mississippi $148,000, specie none; Louisiana $3,781,000, specie $100,000; Texas nearly $2,000,000, specie $218,000; Arkansas $1,029,000, specie 2,500; Virginia $9,050,000, specie $83,000. The total United States bonds to secure circulation is $6,552,000, and compound interest notes only $42,000.

EXTENSIVE SALE OF REAL ESTATE.

PURSUANT TO A DECREE OF GUILFORD Superior Court, we will expose to public sale, on the premises, at 12 o'clock, M., on Thursday, the 26th day of November, on a credit of six and twelve months, bond and approved security, that valuable plantation of the late Col. P. G. Evans, lying on the Yadkin River, at Holtsburg, in Davidson County, containing about 1600 acres, more or less. A large proportion of said Land is cleared and in a fine state of cultivation. The improvements consist of a number of plank houses formerly used as negro houses, barns, &c.

Also, a building Lot of 2 acres, with two small buildings and Barn. Also, an undivided one-third interest in about 700 acres, more or less, of fine farming Land lying around Holtsburg on the Yadkin River, upon which is a fine Water Power inexhaustible as the Yadkin itself.

We will also sell, at the Court House door in Newbern, on Wednesday, 9th of December, at 12 o'clock, on same terms, that magnificent Plantation upon which the late Col. Evans resided, situated 7 miles from Newbern, containing about 5 000 acres, known as the Gaston place, or Beechwood. This is one of the very best places in North Carolina. The land is one of the very finest quality known in the Eastern part of this State, which is famous for its productiveness. The whole place is underlaid with one vast marl bed, immense quantities of which Col Evans used on the plantation. The marl is near the surface and easy to get at, and is inexhaustible quantities. There is a flourishing young Orchard on the place. Col. Evans having set out 4,000 Fruit Trees of the choicest varieties in 1860-61. The improvements consist of a frame Dwelling House with five rooms, and all necessary outhouses for servants, carriage-house, &c. A large proportion of the place is ditched and drained and under cultivation, and is admirably adapted to cotton, corn, oats, hay, and all the products of this climate. There are also on the place large quantities of pine and cypress timber. Bryce's Creek, which is navigable, runs through the place, and on it and near the dwelling House is a very fine water-power where Col. E. had large Grist and Saw Mills, which were destroyed during the war.

THE NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC CONVEETION!

THE PLATFORM.

"The Democratic party in National Convention assembled, reposing its trust in the intelligence, patriotism, and discriminating justice of the people, standing upon the Constitution as the foundation and limitation of the powers of the government, and the guaranty of the liberties of the citizen, and recognizing the questions of slavery and secession as having been settled, for all time to come, by the war or the voluntary action of the Southern States in constitutional conventions assembled, and never to be renewed or re-agitated, do, with the return of peace, demand:

First.—Immediate restoration of all the States to their rights in the Union, under the Constitution, and of civil government to the American people.

Second.—Amnesty for all past political offences and the regulation of the elective franchise in the States by their citizens.

Third.—Payment of the public debt of the United States as rapidly as practicable; all moneys drawn from the people by taxation, except so much as is requisite for the necessities of the Government, economically administered, being honestly applied to such payment, and where the obligations of the government do not expressly state upon their face, or the law under which they were issued does not provide that they shall be paid in coin, they ought in right and in justice to be paid in the lawful money of the United States.

Fourth.—Equal taxation to every species of property according to its real value, including government bonds and other public securities.

Fifth.—One currency for the government and the people, the laborer and the office-holder, the pensioner and the soldier, the producer and the bond holder.

Sixth.—Economy in the administration of the government; the reduction of the standing army and navy; the abolition of the Freedmen's Bureau (great cheering); and all political instrumentalities designed to secure negro supremacy; simplification of the system and discontinuance of inquisitorial modes of assessing and collecting internal revenue, so that the burden of taxation may be equalized and lessened, the credit of the government and the currency made good; the repeal of all enactments for enrolling the militia into national forces in time of peace; and a tariff for revenue upon foreign imports, and such equal taxation under the internal revenue laws as will afford incidental protection to domestic manufactures, and as will, without impairing the revenue, impose the least burden upon and best promote and encourage the great industrial interests of the country.

Seventh.—Reform of abuses in the Administration, the expulsion of corrupt men from office, the abrogation of useless offices, the restoration of rightful authority to and the independence of the executive and judicial departments of the government, the subordination of the military to the civil power, to the end that the usurpations of Congress and the despotism of the sword may cease.

Eighth.—Equal rights and protection for naturalized and native born citizens at home and abroad; the assertion of American nationality which shall command the respect of foreign powers, and furnish an example and encouragement to people struggling for national integrity, constitutional liberty and individual rights; and the maintenance of naturalized citizens against the absolute doctrine of immutable allegiance and the claim of foreign powers to punish them for alleged crime committed beyond their jurisdiction.

In demanding these measures and reforms we arraign the Radical party for its disregard of right, and the unparalleled oppression and tyranny which have marked its career. After the most solemn and unanimous pledge of both Houses of Congress to prosecute the war exclusively for the maintenance of the government and the preservation of the Union under the Constitution, it has repeatedly violated that most sacred pledge under which alone was rallied the noble volunteer army which carried our flag to victory.

Instead of restoring the Union, it has, so far as is in its power, dissolved it, and subjected ten States, in time of profound peace, to military despotism and negro supremacy.

It has nullified there the right of trial by jury; it has abolished the Habeas corpus, that most sacred writ of liberty; it has overthrown the freedom of speech and the press; it has substituted arbitrary seizures and arrests, and military trials and secret star chamber inquisitions for the constitutional tribunals; it has disregarded in time of peace the right of the people to be free from searches and seizure; it has entered the post and telegraph offices, and even the private rooms of individuals, and seized their private papers and letters without any specific charge or notice of affidavit, as required by the organic law; it has converted the American capitol into a bastile; it has established a system of spies and official espionage, to which no constitutional monarchy of Europe would dare to resort; it has abolished the right of appeal on important constitutional questions to the supreme judicial tribunal, and has defeated, so far as it could, without impairing the revenue, impose the least burden upon and best promote and encourage the great industrial interests of the country.

Seventh.—Reform of abuses in the Administration, the expulsion of corrupt men from office, the abrogation of useless offices, the restoration of rightful authority to and the independence of the executive and judicial departments of the government, the subordination of the military to the civil power, to the end that the usurpations of Congress and the despotism of the sword may cease.

Eighth.—Equal rights and protection for naturalized and native born citizens at home and abroad; the assertion of American nationality which shall command the respect of foreign powers, and furnish an example and encouragement to people struggling for national integrity, constitutional liberty and individual rights; and the maintenance of naturalized citizens against the absolute doctrine of immutable allegiance and the claim of foreign powers to punish them for alleged crime committed beyond their jurisdiction.

In demanding these measures and reforms we arraign the Radical party for its disregard of right, and the unparalleled oppression and tyranny which have marked its career. After the most solemn and unanimous pledge of both Houses of Congress to prosecute the war exclusively for the maintenance of the government and the preservation of the Union under the Constitution, it has repeatedly violated that most sacred pledge under which alone was rallied the noble volunteer army which carried our flag to victory.

Instead of restoring the Union, it has, so far as is in its power, dissolved it, and subjected ten States, in time of profound peace, to military despotism and negro supremacy.

It has nullified there the right of trial by jury; it has abolished the Habeas corpus, that most sacred writ of liberty; it has overthrown the freedom of speech and the press; it has substituted arbitrary seizures and arrests, and military trials and secret star chamber inquisitions for the constitutional tribunals; it has disregarded in time of peace the right of the people to be free from searches and seizure; it has entered the post and telegraph offices, and even the private rooms of individuals, and seized their private papers and letters without any specific charge or notice of affidavit, as required by the organic law; it has converted the American capitol into a bastile; it has established a system of spies and official espionage, to which no constitutional monarchy of Europe would dare to resort; it has abolished the right of appeal on important constitutional questions to the supreme judicial tribunal, and has defeated, so far as it could, without impairing the revenue, impose the least burden upon and best promote and encourage the great industrial interests of the country.

Resolved, That we approve of the platform of principles adopted by the National Democratic Convention. It falters in no double sense—its language is explicit and its meaning clear—the issues presented to the country are plainly and unmistakably defined, and, with a free and fair election, we confidently believe they will be endorsed by a large majority of the people, and with that endorsement must come such a change in the administration of the National Government as will restore the Constitution and give peace, harmony and prosperity to the country, and especially to the down-trodden States of the South.

Resolved, That it is our earnest desire and intention to bring about these wholesome and necessary changes by the peaceful means of the ballot-box—and all efforts to produce a contrary belief, coming from what quarter they may, are but the tricks of interested partisans of a desperate political faction, bent upon perpetuating its power by any means and at all hazards. They are attempting to alarm the people of this State by the false cry of revolution and war, threatening them at the same time with military force; while, in other States of the South they have not hesitated to take from the people the election of electors of President and Vice President, and to confer it upon Legislatures, the members of which were elected under military rule without freedom of choice and with no regard to the question of the Presidency, in order to secure the electoral votes of such States for the Radical candidates, in disregard and defiance of the just rights of the people of such States, and of the whole country.

Resolved, That it is our frank purpose now, and has been since the close of our late civil war, to accept and abide by in good faith and without disturbance, the legitimate fruits and consequences of that war; to yield to the Government of the United States a cheerful submission and allegiance, and to perform all the obligations of good citizens to their rightful Government. And we do proclaim that, in asking recognition on terms of equality in that grand copartnership of States which constitutes our Federal Union, we do so with no hostile intent; on the contrary, we wish to share its benefits and its duties; to rebuild our waste places under the protection of its flag; to re-establish the old era of good feeling in our common country; to thwart the designs of unpatriotic men everywhere, who seek to perpetuate discord and division; and to participate in the blessings, as well as the burdens, of the government.—Resolutions adopted by the State Democratic Convention of North Carolina, Aug. 14, 1868.
